

Bells Mill PTA Open Board Positions for 2019-2020

The mission of the BMES PTA is to achieve educational excellence by encouraging parental involvement, building strong teacher-parent relationships, enabling academic enrichment programs, and providing academic, fun, and family-oriented activities which promote learning and strengthen our community.

Do you want to have a direct impact on the activities that are sponsored by the PTA?
If so, consider being on the PTA Board!

The following officer positions are open for the 2019-2020 school year:

President: Coordinates officers and committees, oversees PTA meetings, attends PTA events, and works closely with the Principal. Time: Yearlong commitment including some limited work over the summer.

Vice President (Primary Events/Committees): Coordinates the committee chairs for PTA events and assists with the events as needed. Time: Yearlong commitment and workload is heaviest before and during the key PTA events.

Vice President (Communications): Coordinates and streamlines the content on all PTA communications tools including PTA website, Bear Post, Facebook, flyers, and photography. Manage the conference call software during the PTA membership meetings. Time: Yearlong commitment and workload is heaviest before key PTA events.

Delegates (Two positions open): Attend all board and general meetings at Bells Mill PTA, Cluster meetings, and the Montgomery County Council of PTA. Represent the Bells Mill PTA as voting member of MCCPTA during the council meetings and any other organized MCCPTA related meetings/seminars/presentations and report back announcements, important actions, and all relevant information to the PTA board. Time: Dates of Bells Mill PTA, MCCPTA, and cluster meetings.
